25X1

1. Prior to 13 March 1952, the Neue Infanterie Kaserne on Penzliner Chaussee, Neustrelitz (N 54/U 54) quartered about 600 officers and 2,000 soldiers wearing red-bordered black epaulets. On 4 March, 17 T-34 tanks, [redacted] and 6 tanks of an unidentified type were seen at the tank training grounds in Steinwalde. Only routine duty was observed in the barracks installation. A train carrying 12 T-34 tanks was seen at the freight station on 9 March. Noise of tanks moving from the station toward the Neue Infanterie Kaserne was heard at about 11 p. m. *

2. Thirty 80-mm mortars were seen in the restricted Schlossgarten area on 11 March.

3. An officers' conference was held in the Karolinum in the restricted Clam-heckersee area on 2 March. Vehicles carrying officers to this conference included 2 trucks, 4 jeeps, 3 sedans and 1 bus.

The restricted Clamheckersee area was occupied by about 400 soldiers, predominantly officers of the division headquarters, prior to 11 March.

An artillery unit of about 150 soldiers wearing red-bordered black epaulets, 1 jeep with radio equipment, 3 radio cars, 8 trucks towing canvas-covered guns, apparently AA guns, 4 trucks mounting machine guns, 2 trucks with field kitchens and several personnel carriers loaded with baggage was seen near the restricted area at about 2 p. m. on 3 March.

* [REDACTED] A shipment of tanks, probably of the 9th Gds Tank Div, which may have come from the Lychen-Rutenberg training area or, possibly from Jueterbog. [REDACTED]

** [REDACTED] Comment. With the exception of the restricted Schlossgarten area, there was no change in the occupation of the installations in Neustrelitz.

[REDACTED] The mortars in the restricted area cannot be accounted for as the 121st (?) AAA Regt and the 126th Gds RL Bn of the 9th Gds Tank Div are carried there. Colonel Filipov (fau) is unknown.
